THE MORAL OF The Mail Order Moth And the Flame

The home BUYER—who is he?
He is the man to whom "home" MEANS something.

He is the established, respected citizen.
He is the man who lives a settled, comfortable life in his own cozy house or flat.

The home buyer is one of the honored, substantial citizens of Fairmont. He brings up his children here, builds up his business here.

The fly-by-night citizen, the unsettled, discontented individual is likely to be the out-of-town buyer.

He purchases elsewhere because Fairmont means nothing to him.

He is a drifter through life, a moth attracted by any far-away flame.

He has no prosperity of his own because he has not joined forces with prosperity. He has not attached himself to any of the things that bring wealth and contentment. He has not attempted to identify himself closely with his town, to build up his credit, to own property, to establish a growing business security.

He seeks to save a few pennies under the lure of out-of-town advertising, only to find that his wings are singed in the blaze that tempted him.

He misses completely the point of true thrift, of real economy—that is, to purchase goods only in person, after first-hand examination.

The HOME BUYER on the other hand is the man who knows what he wants—and gets it.

He is the man who doesn't wait for unreliable mail deliveries.

He gets what he wants when he wants it.

The home buyer is known and liked by the city's merchants. They put themselves out to serve him. They deliver goods for him in an emergency, at odd hours, with special promptness. He benefits by corrections and alterations, by special prices and bargains of all kinds.

The home buyer is the thrifty man, the successful man, the man who stands by Fairmont, grows with Fairmont, thrives as Fairmont prospers.

Which are you going to be?

The mail-order moth, the out-of-town shopper, or the substantial, successful, satisfied HOME BUYER?

Be loyal to your town. Be true to your own best interests.

Boost your community's prosperity!
Patronize the home town merchants.

Let's go means just what it says.
Let's go and start prosperity.
Let's go and get busy.
Let's go and do business irrespective of what the other fellow is doing.

Let's go while the going is good and not wait until the train of prosperity is under way and we have to run our fool legs off to catch up with the procession.

Let's go and be real, live, enterprising, hustling American men of business.

LET'S GO AND LET'S KEEP GOING.
